IN THE CHIEF COURT OF MYSORE.

Civil Side.

Rule of Practice No. 69, dated 10*th November* 1887.

The Inspector General of Police having represented that the removal of original diaries and other registers kept in a Police Station for production before the Civil Courts would cause serious inconvenience in the conduct of Police work, the Chief Court directs that whenever a Civil Court considers it necessary, for the ends of justice, to peruse any entries in such diaries or registers, the Police officer in whose custody the papers are, may be summoned to produce or cause to be produced certified copies of, or extracts from, the diaries or registers, subject to the provisions of the Indian Evidence Act. Such summons should be transmitted through the Deputy Commissioner or Police Assistant Commissioner, to whom the said officer is subordinate.

2. The original registers, &c., should be called for only in cases in which it is shown that their production cannot be dispensed with, and the purpose for which they are required cannot be effectually answered, by the production of copies or extracts.

By Order,

L. ANANTASWAMI RAO,
Registrar.
